Countess May Dance In Her Bare Feet For El Pasoans

COUNTRESS DE SWIRSKY.

El Paso will probably have the opportunity of seeing a real barefoot dancer and a genuine European countess all in the same person and at the same time.

H. F. Tillman, manager for the countess de Swirsky, the woman who captured Newport with her barefoot dances and then shocked it by going onto the stage.

The countess is now in California, where she is being dined and received by the society women, and will pass through El Paso in a short time, and arrangements may be made for her appearance at the El Paso theater.

COLQUITT SAYS HE WILL CUT EXPENSES

Governor-Elect Announces He Will Abolish Assistants in Lightfoot's Office.

Austin, Texas, Dec. 31.—Governor-elect Colquitt today made public a letter to attorney general Lightfoot in which he declares he will abolish the three special assistants in Lightfoot's office. Colquitt says:

"I intend to abolish all unnecessary offices and run the state without increasing the tax rate and without incurring a deficiency. Cutting down expenses is necessary for this."

He intimates that there has been a reckless expenditure without the governor's approval. Lightfoot is writing a reply and made a brief oral statement, saying Colquitt is mistaken in thinking the expenditures were not approved by the governor.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases. It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.,—take the advice received and be well.

One-seventh of the total wealth of Mexico is represented by American capital and the American government cannot fail to take an interest in the present situation.

PARROT CRIES FOR MADERA; ARRESTED

Sentenced to Have Tongue Cut Out, so the Juarez Story Runs.

"Viva Madera." The Juarez policeman stopped with a jerk. He knocked on the door of the house from whence the voice came. "Who calls?" asked the policeman. "Madera," came the answer, and then, "Viva Madera." The woman denied that she had taught the parrot to cry "Viva Madera"—such a dangerous thing to remark—but the woman who lived in the house and her talking bird were brought to the commandery of police, and appeared in the civil court, so at least many declare who ought to know. As result of the arraignment of bird and woman, the parrot was sentenced to an awful fate—so they say. It has been decreed that the bird's tongue be cut out, yet that the bird need not die. The woman was freed, on information that she did not teach the parrot to cry, "Viva Madera."

Such is the story they are telling over in Ciudad Juarez where they say it happened only yesterday.

GIRLS IN DIAZ'S SECRET SERVICE, SAYS BOSTON POST

Like the famous women of the north and the south who during the Civil war performed heroic services in behalf of their respective causes, is Miss Mary Garcia, now stopping at Winthrop, Me., according to her own story a member of the Mexican secret service under president Diaz, and now banished because of her activity in behalf of her brother.

It was she who, as the right arm of the indomitable Diaz, for weeks followed Francisco I. Madero, head of the anti-reactionists opposing Diaz, and she again who obtained information after months of tireless tracking which led to the European exile of Gen. Bernardo Reyes, the military and popular hero of Mexico.

"Life is too hazardous for me in Mexico," she said, "I am going to a plantation owned by my brother near Santiago, Cuba."

Miss Garcia is of slim figure, slightly above medium height, with the embodiment of athletic grace in her carriage. Her eyes are black, sparkling and apparently frank, though she has proved in her peculiarly dangerous profession that they can be otherwise if her strong woman's mind so wills. Her cheeks have the peculiar reddish tinge of the Cuban belle and her lips are round and full.—Boston Post.

FIFTEEN MILLION SOULS IN MEXICO

Census Returns Complete Except Statistics for the State of Zacatecas.

Mexico City, Mex., Dec. 31.—Census data for the entire population of the republic of Mexico are given by the chief of the bureau of statistics. Zacatecas is one state which has not sent in its full returns, but close estimates are made as to the actual and present population of that mining place, because it happens to be a town whence people had to emigrate principally on account of lack of work in the mines.

Following is the exact table of figures in every other state and the total in the republic:

States.	1900.	1910.
Aguascalientes	102,416	118,978
Campeche	86,542	85,795

Durango	370,294	426,218
Guanajuato	1,061,724	1,075,270
Guerrero	479,285	606,437

Jalisco	1,153,891	1,202,802
Mexico	924,462	975,019
Michoacan	925,808	981,649
Morales	160,115	179,814
Nuevo Leon	327,437	365,829

Queretaro	222,589	243,515
San Luis Potosi	575,432	624,748
Sinaloa	296,701	324,499
Sonora	221,832	242,445
Tabasco	159,834	183,708
Tamaulipas	218,948	249,253
Tlaxcala	172,215	183,805
Veracruz	981,020	1,124,368
Yucatan	709,652	837,020
Zacatecas	462,190	537,020
Totals	13,607,259	14,251,785

Adding to the figures above given the estimated increase in the state of Zacatecas, as 65,000, the total of the census gives 15,145,676, subject, of course, to official rectification.

It is your solemn duty to protect your family against the perils of poverty. This can be most easily done by accumulating a "Nest Egg" at the El Paso Bank and Trust Company.
